

Toward an Era of Human Rights: Building a People's Movement

Wednesday
17th October 2018

Middlesex University,
The Burroughs, London NW4 4BT

The Lecture Theatre
will be open at 18.45

Join us for a talk on the 2018 Peace Proposal entitled "A Proposal for Peace; Toward an era of Human Rights, building a people's movement", written by the philosopher, author and peace proponent Daisaku Ikeda, president of SGI, with more than 12 million members in 192 countries and territories worldwide.

Robert Samuels, vice Chairman of SGI Europe will introduce and discuss themes from the proposal. Robert Samuels was general director of SGI UK from 2002 to 2013, earlier in his career he was an economics teacher in Barnet for 21 years.

Free event

As seats are limited please register your attendance in advance on Eventbrite <https://towards-an-era-of-human-rights.eventbrite.co.uk>

Venue

The lecture Theatre, Hendon College Building, Room CG76 will be open at 18.45.
The Lecture will be from 19.15 – 20.30 to include an opportunity for the audience to ask Robert questions.

Directions

Hendon Central is the nearest tube or Bus 143, 326 and 183 stop outside.

Parking

Free parking in the University car park off Greyhound Hill. After 18.30 various streets around the University are free.

Exhibitions

In conjunction with this peace proposal there will be the following 3 exhibitions running on the 15th and 16th October from 10.00 – 18.00 in the main atrium of the University.

The Barnet Multi Faith Forum the strategic voice of the faith sector in Barnet is delighted to be involved with Soka Gakkai International, in supporting this exciting programme, to promote peace, dignity and respect for life. These are the pivotal values that unite us to stand together in demonstrating our mutual esteem for all those of different faiths and beliefs.

SGI-UK

Buddhism in Action for Peace

Soka Gakkai International (SGI) is a socially engaged Buddhist movement that actively promotes peace, culture and education based on a belief in positive human potential and respect for the dignity of life. For more information visit the SGI UK website www.sgi.org