

Barnet Hate Crime Awareness Week 12th to 16th October 2020

Visit a Hate Crime Reporting and Information Stand

The Metropolitan Police will be available to speak to members of the public about identifying hate crime and the ways in which it can be reported to the Police:

Monday 12th October

Edgware Bus Station 9am-12.30pm,
Station Road, Edgware HA8 7BD

Friday 16th October

Golders Green Bus Station 9am-12.30pm, 1 Golders Green
Road, London NW11 8DY

Attend a Hate Crime Awareness Week Webinar

The Barnet Zero Tolerance to Hate Crime Project will be hosting two information Webinars, aimed at raising awareness of hate crime and discussing the challenges to reporting:

Safeguarding and Hate Crime

Wednesday 14th October, 2pm on Microsoft Teams

“Safeguarding Concerns – Are we Recognising and Reporting Hate Crime Against the Vulnerable?”

Join our Panel of Guests for an informative discussion around the overlap between the definitions of Hate Crime and Safeguarding

Online Hate, Harassment and Extremism

Thursday 15th October, 7pm on Zoom

“Are Hate Groups Still Active during the Pandemic?”

Join us for an informative discussion where you will understand how to detect online hate and extremism and protect your communities from it with new reporting technology

These events will take place online. To register to attend, please contact Barnet's Hate Crime Reporting Co-Ordinator, Reshma Hirani at reshma.hirani@barnetmencap.org.uk

